FIVE HOUSES BURNED DOWN

Nine Others Wrecked
by Fire on Van
Ness Avenue.

Biggest Blaze Since the Conflagration of Last April.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—Fire which originated in a grill at 540 Van Ness avenue at 2:45 this morning destroyed five frame buildings and wrecked nine others.

The buildings were all of wood and were of the temporary nature put up in the first days after the fire.

All were occupied as stores and offices.

It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—The new business district of San Francisco was swept by one of the most disastrous fires since the calamity of last April at 3 o'clock this morning. The damage done by the fire, which totally destroyed five buildings and badly damaged nine, will prove a total loss, as all the insurance in the block was cancelled several days ago. The fire originated in the kitchen of a Van Ness avenue cafe which is located in the Hobart and Tit building at 544 Van Ness avenue, and swept along the en-

FINE STANDS SAYS THE COURT

Must Pay Heavy Fines for Granting the Rebates.

CHICAGO, April 16.—The United States Court of Appeals today affirmed the conviction in the district court of the Chicago & Alton railroad and J. M. Falthorn and Fred A. Wann, former officials of the road, for granting rebates.

The company and two officials were found guilty last year and an aggregate fine of $40,000 was imposed. The railroad company was fined $20,000 and the two officials $10,000 each.

GUillotINED BY WINDOW GLASS

Horrible Death of Woman When Stricken by Apoplectic Fit.

CHICAGO, April 16.—Mrs. Sarah A. Albaugh, a widow seventy-three years old, living in West Madison street, was found dead in her bedroom today with her throat cut. She was stricken with apoplexy while standing near a window and fell headlong through the glass severing her jugular vein.

mother of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw.

Would Have Killed Stanford White Had She Known Story Told by Her Daughter.

(Copyright 1907 by the Pittsburg Leader Publishing Company.)

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 16.—The Leader this afternoon prints a six-column statement from Mrs. C. J. Holman, mother of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, in which she defends herself against the accusations, expressed and implied, against her during the Thaw trial.

She says that two nights after the night upon which Harry Thaw shot Stanford White she received this telegram from her daughter:

THE TELEGRAM.

"It is most important for you to say absolutely nothing."

Until now she has remained silent and has been forced to take the defensive because of the attack made upon her by Mr. Delmas in his closing address to the Thaw jury.

She denies that she aided the district attorney in any way and that she had been seen by Mr. Jerome, Mr. Garvan or Mr. Hartbridge.

Mrs. Holman then details her struggle following the death of her first husband, in her efforts to properly rear her two children and says her daughter first posed for an artist named Stollen, of Philadelphia, who met Evelyn at a summer resort when a little girl.

LOVED THE STAGE.

"Florence," she says, "was in love with the stage."

She did everything to discourage her but it was useless.

The story of Florence's first meeting with Stanford White, she says, is substantially as told by her upon the witness stand.

When Florence returned, she told her mother she had met "the grandest man," and later when Mr. White sent for her she went to his office.

Mr. White, she says, warned her specifically against several young men with whom Florence had become acquainted but did not refer to Thaw.

WHITE'S WORDS.

Mr. White's words and actions were the personification of a whole-hearted, disinterested generosity, Mrs. Holman says, and if ever a woman reposed implicit confidence in a man, she says, she did in him.

WOMAN STARVED TO DEATH IN STREETS OF NEW YORK

NEW YORK, April 16.—A woman fainted and fell from starvation at the corner of the Bowery and Houston street yesterday and a crowd collected and tried to arouse her.

At St. Vincent's Hospital she recovered sufficiently to tell her name, Annie McDermott, saying that she was 50 years of age and "had no home, no friends, no money." She died half an hour after arriving at the hospital.

TWO HIGHWAYMEN HOLD UP A PRETTY ACTRESS

Miss Marguerite Gordon of Ye Liberty Theater
Gives Up $2, but Saves Her
Diamond Ring.

Highwaymen are again operating in the city, this time in East Oakland.

Last night about 11:30 o'clock Miss Marguerite Gordon who is playing an engagement at Ye Liberty Theater was returning home, leaving the car at the corner of Twenty-first avenue and Twenty-fourth street.

She had walked but a short distance from the corner in the middle of Twenty-fourth street, when she was commanded by two men on the sidewalk to halt. At first she glanced in the direction from whence the words came, but kept on walking.

Another command, this time more sharp and decisive, came, then she noticed one of the men had a revolver in his hand and it was pointed towards her. She recognized a revolver on account of the shining of the light along the barrel.

"Come here," said one of the men, but Miss Gordon stood still.

"I was about to scream," said the young woman when narrating her story this afternoon, "but as I halted one of the men told me not to scream or they would shoot me."

"Come here I say," again spoke one of the men, and Miss Gordon walked to the sidewalk where the men were waiting.

She carried a hand satchel, inside of which were trinkets and a small purse containing money.

"Got any money?" asked the man with the revolver, still covering the young woman.

"Yes, in my satchel, is my pocket book, but there's only $2 in it," replied Miss Gordon.

The robbers took this and told the woman to move on. Just before she started one of the men said: "Perhaps she has some rings, Ben, did you look?"

Miss Gordon told the men she had two cheap rings on her fingers and started to take off her glove for them, but the fellow said:

"Oh, never mind, we don't want them," and Miss Gordon saved a fine diamond ring she was wearing.

The highwaymen then told Miss Gordon to "hike" and she started towards her home, 920 Twenty-fourth street. When she had gone about 100 feet she looked back, but could see nothing of the men.

The description given by Miss Gordon is in regard to the man who frightened her, but she says they were unmasked, medium sized, roughly dressed, and wore hats that were drawn down over their eyes.

TRIAL UNFAIR SAYS ABE RUEF

Curly Boss Thinks
He Is Getting
Worst of It.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—"Mr. Ruef, do you believe that you are getting a fair trial in Judge Dunne's court?" was a question asked of the prisoner this morning, who is charged with extortion, by THE TRIBUNE correspondent.

"No," was the answer and the monosyllable came in a slow and distinct voice.

"Why?"

"Why, a blind man could answer that question."

"Because of the rulings of the court to which Attorney Ach has taken exceptions."

"Oh, because of everything."

EDNA GOODRICH IS NOW DIVORCED

Actress Playing at the Macdonough
Introduced Evelyn Nesbit to Stanford White.

NEW YORK, April 16.—That Edna Goodrich, the beautiful young actress named by Evelyn Nesbit Thaw as having introduced her to Stanford White, was once Mrs. Edward E. Stacy will be as much of a surprise to Broadway as the fact that she quietly got a divorce from her husband for desertion in Chicago a year ago.

Marriage and divorce were alike made known through a suit in the City court for $1000 for legal services, by Adolph Marks, of Chicago, in procuring the divorce.

Miss Goodrich met Stacy when she was sixteen years old. After a short sequester used in the proceedings prevented them from becoming public.

Miss Goodrich is now, in the west, playing with Nat Goodwin in "The Genius." Her attorney, Herman L. Roth, accepted service of papers in the Marks suit. An answer was made denying that the actress was indebted to Marks for a penny.

Herman Roth says he alone is responsible for the divorce, and that Marks appeared for him before Judge Kavanaugh as a trial attorney as a matter of courtesy, but the case is on the short cause calendar, and without the fair defendant to put on the stand no course appears possible but to allow a default judgment.

"When Miss Goodrich returns to New York I shall ask that the case be reopened," said Mr. Roth. "If they can show that she owes anything they will be paid in full."

Patrolman Michael J. Fenton, of the Oakland police force, is in disgrace, and will either resign or stand trial before the commission on charges preferred by Chief Wilson. Fenton, while intoxicated last night, made things lively and interesting at the corner of Twenty-second and Market street. He was dispersing a lot of boys who were playing ball on a vacant lot near the corner named Fenton was insanely intoxicated and threatening to shoot an old man and Special Policeman Green. He charged and routed the boys, and then abused an inoffensive old man who happened to cross Fenton's path. Officer Green, who lives in the vicinity was summoned, and when he attempted to remonstrate with the drunken officer, Fenton fired three shots in his direction. Officer Green lay the fellow out with his club, then summoned Captain Petersen by phone.

On arrival on the scene Captain Petersen stripped Fenton of his star revolver, and every insignia of office, and Fenton was sent to a cell in the police headquarters.

Chief Wilson says he met Fenton this morning, but the fellow was so ashamed to talk. He did say, however, that a few glasses of wine were responsible for his condition. He promised to explain later, but Chief Wilson thinks this will be in the shape of a resignation. If Fenton does not resign, he will be charged before the commission with intoxication while on duty and conduct unbecoming an officer.

Fenton was appointed October 10, 1906, and has borne a good reputation to this time. His brother, Patrolman James Fenton, is highly praised by the chief, captains and his brother officers, who feel sorry for him in the circumstances.

FEAR A BIG CAR STRIKE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—

Though both sides to the controversy refused through their official heads to discuss it, there is definite information that the street car men of San Francisco have been for some days formulating a renewed demand for an eight-hour day with $3 a day pay, to be submitted some time before the first of next month, and that the United Railroads is preparing to resist a serious strike if that should be the outcome.

Relative to the likelihood of a strike, it is pointed out in financial circles that because of heavy expenditures necessitated by the earthquake and fire and the possibility that the corporation will be called on to appropriate large sums for the maintenance of its franchises, the United Railroads may refuse flatly to grant the demand which the carmen are considering. That a strike would follow, of indefinite duration and tying up the whole car system, is freely predicted by those in touch with the union.

A meeting of the carmen's union will be held tonight to canvass the situation.

ARE PROTESTING AGAINST PROFESSOR'S DISMISSAL

Students at University Desire Martin Anthony Center Reinstated in the German Department.

BERKELEY, April 15.—With all the headlong ardor of unconquered youth, the students at the University of California have flung themselves into the breach between President Wheeler and Martin Anthony Center, and the battle is on in determined earnestness. The students are circulating a petition, protesting against the dismissal of Professor Center as instructor in the German department, and asking that he be continued in the position he has held for the past ten years. Center is popular among the students and when the petition was first circulated yesterday afternoon, page after page of names was quickly inscribed. Inasmuch as no teacher has yet been determined upon to fill Center's place, the students ask that the governing board reconsider its action upon this matter. Center will, however, remain until July.

"The whole animus of the situation arose out of difficulties between Professor Schilling, head of the German department, and the various leading German societies on this county and of the state. The entire affair is extraneous to my work at the University. It is contrary to the most elementary ideas of justice and fairness to the students of this university to remove Professor Schilling's resignation against these organizations in the affairs of the University, and yet I can trace my dismissal from the University to no other cause," declared Mr. Center, in discussing the recent action of the trustees when, at the suggestion of Professor Schilling, Mr. Center was dropped from the faculty.

SEEKS NO FAVORS.

"I am not asking for favors, all I want is simple justice. Our professor is trying enough as it is. Such action as this takes the heart out of a teacher, and he has higher motives of work," continued Mr. Center.

"After serving an institution faithfully, with heart and head in the work for ten years, to be taken out of a position of honor and respect, and to be sent to a place where he is entitled to no consideration, I was let out peremptorily—without one word of explanation. I do not know even now, of any tangible reason, outside of the disagreement that I mentioned, warranting such unjust treatment."

"It was very kind of President Wheeler yesterday to say that my severing my connection with the University was voluntary on my part. I presume that the trustees were in a hurry. In justice to myself and my friends, I cannot coincide with President Wheeler's statement of the situation. It was the greatest shock of my life when I heard, in a roundabout way, that President Wheeler and Professor Schilling had failed to recommend me for re-appointment. Naturally the trustees acted upon this suggestion, as it was proper they should do."

According to the friends of Mr. Center, the trouble in the German department originated some time ago, when the assistant teacher was elected to superior positions in several of the German clubs. Professor Schilling, at the same time, suffered a humiliating defeat, and the controversy was taken up by the leading German papers and abroad over the state. The fight in these organizations finally became very bitter, descending to personal abuse, in which Albert Curtin, editor of the Oakland Journal, a prominent German paper, led to the fight for the friends of Mr. Center. This acrimony is said to have led to the resignation of Professor Schilling from a position in the German Verein.

MRS. NESBIT TELLS HER STORY

Mrs. Holman then asserts that if Florence underwent the experience that is said to have befallen her, she did not take her into her confidence.

Continuing she says:

"Had she told me what she told the Thaw jury, it would not have been necessary for Harry Thaw to kill Stanford White. I would have done it myself."

EUROPEAN TRIP.

Speaking of the European trip, Mrs. Holman says:

"Every detail of the trip was and is a nightmare to me. Mr. Thaw joined us in Paris. Florence and I shared the same apartments. Mr. Thaw had apartments by himself. There was no pleasure in the tour for me. The things which appeared to Florence and Mr. Thaw in Paris did not appeal to me. Florence testified that we quarreled frequently in Paris. "The disagreements were caused by my protests at visits to various restaurants."

LOVES HER DAUGHTER.

In closing Mrs. Holman says:

"I solemnly affirm that my love for my daughter is as deep and intense as it was when I first held her in my arms a helpless babe. Regardless of all that has transpired, my affection remains unaltered. The door of my home is open to her and will open wide to her lightest tap today, tomorrow, and always while I live."

JEROME TALKS ABOUT DELMAS

Discusses Senior Counsel for Defense in Thaw Case—Some-what Praiseworthy.

NEW YORK, April 15.—An interview with District Attorney Jerome is published in which he reviews the Thaw case, and says that Harvey Delmas made all that possibly could be made out of the Thaw case as a witness. The senior counsel for the defense was brilliant at times, in spite of the handicap put upon him by the junior counsel, who had evidently not prepared the case with unity and settled theory and in spite of the handicap of having a client who assumed superior knowledge and distasteful management.

M. Delmas, who intends to remain in New York to practice, having leased offices here for five years, was visited today by Wilbur F. Steele, one of the Thaw jurors who was the foremost advocate of acquittal. Steele remained in conversation with Delmas two hours. On leaving, he said to newspaper men that Delmas had been very shabbily treated by the Thaws, and they could not get him to accept another retainer. Steele said he would not have called had he not been informed that Delmas was out of the Thaw case. One reason given for the visit was that Dr. Gordon, Steele's brother-in-law, was a neighbor and friend of Delmas in California, and Steele wished to speak about him.

every man coming before the court for trial.

"If the Supreme Court could grant your writ of habeas corpus you would still be in the custody of the Sheriff, and would be confined in the county jail without any trial. I would that be preferable to being confined under the conditions which now surround you?"

"It would be preferable. It is a matter of what the law is and not a matter of convenience and comfort of the defense."

"If granted your writ of habeas corpus will you secure your liberty by giving bail?"

"There is already an application for that."

"What is the amount?"

"It would be $50,000 in this case."

"Regarding the other sixty-five cases."

"They would be taken up separately."

The correspondent then told Ruef that the attorney's affidavit disqualifying the Sheriff and urging the appointment of an ellor was at the expense of the prosecution and the ellor was to be paid by the city and county of San Francisco and not by Rudolph Spreckels or any other person. Ruef was asked what his opinion on this subject was, and replied, "I would like to see any law which provides for the expense of an ellor keeping a man in custody and providing practically a jail of his own."

Alleged Russian Social Revolutionists Placed in Jail on Suspicion.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—Twenty-five members of the fighting organization of the social revolutionists were arrested here yesterday, among them being seven women. The majority of those taken into custody are recent arrivals in St. Petersburg, but one of them has been identified as an accomplice of the terrorists, who made an attempt on the life of Premier Stolypin August 25 last.

The people attach the greatest importance to the captures, which are regarded as nipping in the bud plans for a new series of assassinations. All the prisoners have been confined in the fortress.

MINSK, Russia, April 15.—In consequence of the plot to assassinate the Governor of Minsk, which was discovered on April 14, by the police, who captured two terrorists who were hiding opposite the Governor's palace, the local authorities have arrested all the members of the terrorist organization here.

about the tride and the blacuits never appealed to me. I remember on one occasion I appealed to Mrs. Minister's maternal namesake to obtain a clue to my prospects for becoming her son-in-law. She asked, "Do you love my daughter?" and my reply was, "I would die for her." "Then you'll never die of indigestion," she replied, and I took that for a good omen. For those readers of this paper who have any form of blood disorder, who want new, rich blood and plenty of it, try this:

Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. Any good prescription pharmacy can supply the ingredients at small cost.

This is said to do wonders for many people whose skin and complexion show the condition of their blood, or who are sickly, weak and run down physically, and is known to relieve serious, long-standing cases of Rheumatism and chronic backache quickly.

Make some up and try it.

Willie Talks of Spring Shirts

Pa says: "Produce great strawberries and the shortcake follows." All merchants were kids first, salesmen next, then bosses. Are you going to be a salesman all your life? "Not for Willie." I'm going to be the head squeeze some day and have my name on the hill-tops, on icebergs or in some conspicuous place, all right, all right. Gee, I'd like to have a fine big store like the boss's got. I'll bet I wouldn't be as unconcerned as he is. I'd get a big diamond stud and a diamond ring and wear a stovepipe hat and have a great big red automobile. I believe he'd just as soon talk to a newsworthy or a bootblack as to the President of the United States. I've heard him tell lots of poor kids to work hard, keep their faces and hearts clean and they'd get there.

We've certainly been busy all this week and there'll be something doing next week, too. We've a lot of our spring suits on sale already but the things that are selling fast are hats, gloves, underwear and shirts. Gosh, but those shirts we got in this week are the real fruit and that's no joke. Did you catch one?

M'PIKE MAKES DEMAND FOR SOME THAW EXHIBITS

Clerk Refuses the Request and the Matter Will Now Go Before the Judge.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The first open rupture of the oft-reported trouble between the array of attorneys who represented Harry K. Thaw came today when Henry C. McPike, associate of D. M. Delmas, called on Clerk Penny of the Supreme Court and demanded the immediate surrender of some of the exhibits introduced by the defense during the trial.

LET US HAVE PEACE, IS PLEA OF GOOD WOMEN

Mothers, Wives and Daughters Send in a Big Protest to the Peace Congress.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The protest of mothers, wives and daughters against a continuance of wars among civilized peoples, was uttered today at the fourth session of the first national arbitration and peace congress in Carnegie Hall, presided over by Mrs. Anna Garlin Spencer, of Providence, R. I. The big hall was crowded with women gathered from many sections of the country, all wearing the white badge of delegates.

M. M. Marks, President of the National Association of Mothers, presided at the Hotel Astor meeting, while at Carnegie Hall William H. Maxwell, Superintendent of the public schools of New York, was in charge.

NOTABLE ADDRESS.

One of the notable addresses delivered at the women's meeting was that of Miss Mary E. Woolley, President of Mount Holyoke College.

Miss Woolley declared that the naval and military display to be made at the forthcoming Jamestown exposition might work much harm in the minds of the susceptible youth of the country.

"Imitation enters into the very fastest of character," she declared, "and the ideals had before the child determine to a great extent what the man will be. If we really wish to develop the spirit of mercy, other than that of cruelty, to exalt reason more than violence, why not depict the enticing splendors of peace instead of enticing splendors of war?"

NEW IDEALS.

Miss Jane Addams, head of Hull House, Chicago, received a hearty welcome. She spoke of "New Ideals of Peace," and dwelt upon the part that woman may play in bringing about a Christian unity among nations.

Mrs. Lucy Ames Moad of Boston, spoke on "The History of the Peace Movement."

Mrs. Ellen M. Henrotin, former president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, discussed "The War and Economic Waste of War."

Mrs. Frederick Nathan, president of the Consumers' League of New York city, took for a topic "Industry and its Relations to Peace."

LET US HAVE PEACE.

In conclusion she said: "Let us press ever forward in the light of new knowledge, of new experience. If we have rocked the cradle, if we have rocked the pillars of the world, let us be on hand at their great awakening to make steadfast the peace of the world."

ARE SUING FOR A COMMISSION

Reality Dealers Claim They Entered Into Agreement to Sell Property.

A suit to recover a commission of $1500 is being tried in Superior Judge Ellisworth's court this afternoon. The real estate firm of Kriss & Horvill is endeavoring to recover the commission on a proposed sale of the Babst Cafe property on Eighth street, between Broadway and Washington. It is alleged that George Roeth, owner of the property, entered into an agreement with them in the early part of 1908 by which they would sell his property for $50,000, and for the deal was to receive $1500.

The real estate brokers claim that they advertised for a purchaser and finally found one who was ready to take the cafe off their hands. The deal was about to be made and Roeth refused to let the property go at the price originally asked. The real estate men insist on the commission and are seeking the aid of the courts.

INSURANCE CANCELLED.

Owing to the numerous restaurants in the vicinity, the insurance was declared cancelled by the various insurance companies only a few days ago. Wimpey's restaurant, at 548 Van Ness avenue, an empty store at 540 Van Ness avenue, a dining room at 543 Golden Gate avenue, and Frahm's Coffee Parlor at 535 Golden Gate avenue were totally destroyed, while the Little Louvre Restaurant, at 527 Golden Gate avenue, Rabjohn & Moore's picture framing establishment at 544 Van Ness avenue, S. C. Gould's Hospital Furnishing Company at 546

Van Ness avenue, Samuel Johnson's liquor store, Gleason & Ragless' Drug Store at the southeast corner of Van Ness and Golden Gate avenues and the cigar store in front of 548 Van Ness avenue all experienced losses ranging up each from $2500.

FIREBUGS ARE AT WORK

the block in the direction of Golden Gate avenue, destroying several business establishments of that thoroughfare.

The new business section is composed almost exclusively of frame buildings and the fire department found it difficult to gain any headway in checking the flames. Luckily no fatalities resulted from the fire, and as far as is known nobody was injured.

The alarms were answered by nearly every engine and chemical company that were in possible approaching distance. The Board of Underwriters refused to disclose the real amount of damage done, but intimated that it is well up in the six figures.

SAYS HUSBAND HURT HEARING

Sensational testimony is being introduced today in the divorce proceedings which Mrs. Katherine V. Sandberg has instituted against Captain Samuel S. Sandberg of the Pacific Mail Steamship company's steamer Korea.

The deposition taken of the plaintiff's case in Los Angeles, where she resides, relates many cruel and inhuman acts on the part of the sea captain. She charges him with beating her and when he came home from a seven month trip to sea she asserts that he had no words of kindness but was mean and struck her because of troubles he had aboard the ship.

Mrs. Sandberg claims that her husband received letters from women unknown to her who reported to him that his wife was unfit to raise their only child and that she was not true to him. The plaintiff claims that when her husband read these letters he gave vent to abuse and beat her, warning her not to scream. She says that Sandberg frequently threatened to leave her and have nothing more to do with her. On one occasion she says he struck her on the head and injured her ear drum.

The deposition consists of several thousand words and deals principally with alleged cruelty. In some instances, Mrs. Sandberg told the Los Angeles court commissioners that the skipper addressed her with vile epithets which she disliked to repeat. Her alimony was recently reduced by Judge Ogden to about $60 a month from the amount of $150 which was originally asked for.

Captain Sandberg will not rest content with action taken by his wife, for he in turn intends to tell his troubles to the court. In the complaint which he has filed for divorce, he alleges adultery on the part of Mrs. Sandberg. Captain Sandberg's cross-complaint will be taken up at the conclusion of the hearing of his wife's deposition.

They have one child and were married in Panama thirteen years ago.

Clung to His Reins Although Thrown to the Pavement.

While driving out San Pablo avenue the team became frightened at the baseball band and ran away. The horses turned into a passageway at 823 San Pablo avenue and Johnson was thrown from his seat to the pavement. He was up in an instant and stopped the team before they got away again. The driver was badly shaken up.

OWNERSHIP OF AUTO QUESTION

Thomas Middlemiss is being tried by a jury this afternoon in Judge Waste's court for obtaining money under false pretenses from A. F. Derrick. The plaintiff claims that Middlemiss represented himself as the owner of a blacksmith shop, automobile garage and Winton auto. For a half interest in the shops and touring car, he offered to accept $850 from Derrick. The latter paid Middlemiss the money and now claims that he was defrauded. Derrick alleges that Middlemiss was not the owner of the property he represented himself to be. The property over which the litigation rests is in San Leandro and there are a number of witnesses from that town.

ABE RUEF IN JOGULAR VEIN

Tells Reporter Chauffeur Per-spiced Blood When Fined for Speeding.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—Abe Ruef, charged with extortion in Judge Dunne's court, was in a jocular mood this morning when THE TRIBUNE correspondent called. The correspondent, in ascending to the front porch of the house in which the defendant is detained on Fillmore street, noticed that the steps leading to the front entrance were stained with blood.

Ruef was asked by the correspondent if any one had been injured in an attempt to rescue him from the custody of Ellsler Biggy. Before Ruef could reply Assistant District Attorney Foley suggested that the blood stains may have been caused by an injury to the chauffeur.

"Oh, yes," replied Ruef, "the chauffeur was leaving here the day before yesterday after having brought Attorney Ach to this place. He must have put up quite a speed going away because the police took him into custody."

In the police court today the chauffeur said that he was the chauffeur for Ellsler Biggy, and the court in passing sentence said, "Well, I guess Biggy is a bright man, but I guess I'll have to fine you $10."

"I am of the opinion," said Ruef, "that the blood stains on the steps which you saw, were made by the chauffeur, trying to pay that $10 fine."

Ruef laughed and seemed to enjoy his own explanation of the bloody stains.

GAVE HIS WIFE HYPNOTIC LOOK

Pretty Young Bride Tells Judge Tale of Remarkable Deed.

Lillian A. Van Gent, nee Lillian A. Dore, was this afternoon granted an interlocutory divorce from J. R. Van Gent by Judge Ogden. In the sensational complaint that was filed some months ago, the young bride admitted that because of her youth she believed her husband when he came home intoxicated and told her he was casting hypnotic trances over her. She said that with practice and time she became aware of his deceit and learned that he was a "drunkard, liar, gambler and dead beat," as the complaint reads. The couple were married October 8, 1906. Mrs. Van Gent was permitted to resume her maiden name of Lillian A. Dore.

YOUTH IN JAIL FOR FORGERY

Scion of Wealthy Family Accused of Passing Worthless Checks.

Harry Liberman, 21 years of age, was arrested last night and booked at police headquarters on a forgery charge. Liberman says he is a son of a millionaire member of the New York Stock Exchange and has many wealthy relatives in the East. It is alleged that Liberman has passed a number of worthless checks on Oakland merchants. He has been here only a short time but has been living a fast life, spending large sums of money for liquor. Last week he gave a draft for $100 to Charles Newman, proprietor of the College Inn. Instead of cashing this Newman sent the draft to the Bank of Goldfield, Nev., on which it was drawn. In a few days he was notified that Liberman had no funds on deposit there. Investigation developed that Liberman had given a check on the same bank to a chauffeur named Christensen, this check being for $275. This is also worthless. Other merchants have turned in checks as the detectives have in their possession a large number of alleged worthless paper given by Liberman, while he was soaring high.

CONFESSES TO ASSASSINATION

Accused Man Takes Witness Stand and Tells Horrible Story.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 16.—John Smith, charged with the assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox, took the witness stand today and fully confessed to the assassination of Jim Cockrell, saying Britton was not present, but that he, Curtis Jett and John Abner killed Cockrell. Smith fired once, Jett four times and Abner three times.

man had given a check on the same bank to a chauffeur named Christensen, this check being for $275. This is also worthless. Other merchants have turned in checks as the detectives have in their possession a large number of alleged worthless paper given by Liberman, while he was soaring high.

INNOCENCE IS ESTABLISHED

Berkeley Youth Accused of Having Robbed Postoffice Is Vindicated.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—Jesse B. Turner, arrested on the charge of embezzling $10 while a postal clerk at Berkeley, was thoroughly vindicated at a hearing before United States Commissioner Heacock yesterday. The Commissioner, in discharging Turner from custody said:

"I believe the defendant to be wholly innocent in this matter. His explanation is the only reasonable one that can be given."

The date of the alleged offense was March 3, 1906. On that date S. C. Simpson, an attorney for Berkeley, secured a postal order for $15.90. The amount entered on the cash book was $5.80, which was also the amount on the application which showed no signs of forgery or alteration. The apparent juggling of the books was discovered at Washington, and Turner's arrest followed.

Turner took the stand yesterday and gave it as his theory that Simpson made out the application for $5.80 by mistake. He laid $15.80 on the counter, and Turner made out the order for that amount, putting the application on the file after merely glancing at it. Then, according to his theory, when he made up the cash book at night he simply entered the $5.80 that appeared on the blank. He does not remember Simpson securing the order, but says that having to act as clerk in the drug store in which the postoffice was situated, he was often badly rushed.

R. D. Fuller, proprietor of the drug store, testified that often the cash for money orders was not counted for several days at a time.

Ben McKinley appeared for the government and Bert Schlessinger for the defense.

Turner is twenty-three years old and a college graduate. His father, who is a well-to-do widow of Berkeley, appeared in court with him.

RELIEF PLANS ARE ADMIRABLE

Schemes of Finance Committee Prove to be Excellently Arranged.

SILANGHAT, April 16. Investigation shows that the plans of the famine relief committee are admirable. There has been no leakage of the funds administered by foreigners. A house to house inspection has resulted in 30,000 families, totaling 300,000 famine sufferers, being enrolled by the committee which is attempting to provide food for them until the harvest. Additions to the list of families will be made only when the funds available justify it. Three kinds of relief tickets are issued:

First, free food, which are not issued unless the family has absolutely no money, food or pawnable articles and its members too weak to work; second, where they are physically able, each member of a family is given work to pay for food; third, the Chinese government is paying to some families one and one-half cents per day.

These tickets are given to these families entitling them to purchase famine supplies at cost. Food is furnished to ticket-holders at the relief sub-centers at stated times. Often the thatch roofs and shingles of houses are sold and families, because they had a table left, have been refused relief, and utterly discouraged, they have committed suicide.

LEAVES $11,150 IN GOLD CASH

Fortune Represents "Tips" Collected by San Francisco Waiter.

An Appraisement filed yesterday afternoon on the estate of the late Joseph Clement places its value at $11,150, all of which is cash. Clement was a San Francisco waiter who died in Alameda a few weeks ago leaving a small fortune which he accumulated in tips during his long service in the city. He left the greater part of his fortune to friends, but part of the will was obliterated by pen marks. The portions scratched out had some of his devoted friends from an inheritance. There is considerable doubt as to who defaced the will and this will be a matter for the Probate Court to solve.

OLD VIRGINIA SUIT MEETS SECOND DEFEAT

MAYKING, Ky., April 16.—The celebrated old Virginia land grant suit in which possession of seven millions of dollars worth of Eastern Kentucky coal lands was sued for by Eastern parties, met a second defeat in the Circuit Court at Whitesburg yesterday when Judge Whites dismissed the case. Hundreds of mounted land owners were present but good order prevailed. The attorneys for the claimants will take the case to the Federal Court.

FILE PROTESTS AGAINST GRANTING OF FRANCHISES

Many Residents Make Known Their Views on the Proposed Railroad for Wood Street.

In the committee of the whole of the Council last night, the matter of railway franchises through Wood street, between Seventh and Twentieth streets, was taken up and the protestants were given a limited time to state their grievances. This time was made 16 minutes for the protestants.

Attorney Burke Corbett represented all of the protestants particularly the California Door Company that has about 700 feet of frontage on Wood street, and spoke for his clients. When the California Door Company established its plant in 1889 on Wood street, it was a place where they could work advantageously and its 250 or 300 employees have built homes around there.

LATER IMPROVEMENTS.

Later the electric railway company built its line down Wood street. Now the steam roads want to come down the street and to grant a franchise to the Western Pacific and Santa Fe. It will be a practical confiscation of Wood street and will shut out the California Door Company from handling its products which today means fifty dry loads of freight daily.

With the one electric company now using the street and two steam roads on Wood street it would confiscate the street and nobody else would have any use of it.

H. N. Dalton said it would be impossible to use the street if other roads were given a right to come down Wood street. He thought the companies should use the tide lands for their tracks and not take the street. A. B. Secott, C. G. Lander and several other protestants were also heard.

Councilman Ellsworth asked Attorney Snook if the Western Pacific road would stand the expense of widening Wood street. The latter replied he was unable to answer that question at this time, but would have to refer it to the company.

WILL ADD VALUES.

Councilman Elliott said there was no question about it that the railroad will ruin Wood street as a home street but the property adjoining will increase property values, as it will be given over to manufacturing purposes. It will be the best thing for the people possibly to have this road. Into the city ultimately the property ruined for home purposes will be worth many hundreds of dollars more than at present.

Councilman Ellsworth granted all Mr. Elliott said but he thought that the city and its people should receive some remuneration for the franchise asked for by railroads.

Oakland, argued Mr. Elliott, is in a plastic condition and will be so for a few years.

COMING OAKLAND.

"In the next three or four years Oakland will either show herself to be the great terminus of trans-continental railroads, or shall San Francisco receive these roads?" asked Mr. Elliott. "New roads want to come here but these dilly-dallying tactics will keep them away and Oakland will gain or lose."

At the conclusion of Mr. Elliott's remarks Mr. Ellsworth withdrew his resolution but when it comes to a vote on granting the franchise he will vote against it.

Vote on sustaining or overruling the resolution resulted in a unanimous vote to overrule the same. This brought up the applications of the Western Pacific, Atchison Topeka and Santa Fe and the San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose railways for franchises down Wood street and was postponed until next meeting, when ordinances will be heard.

ADOPT MANY RESOLUTIONS

REJECTS CLAIM OF SMALL SUM

Auditor Points Out That Action Must Come Through Other Sources.

City Auditor George E. Gross sent a communication to the City Council last night in which he rejects claim of Kane and Daly for $27 for horse and buggy hire in month of April, 1906. He acts on the opinion of the City Attorney.

Mr. Pendleton said he contracted this obligation on an order of Governor Pardee and Mayor Mott at the time of the great calamity. He could see no reason for its rejection.

It was explained that the claim was proper but it must come up through different channels and will be arranged in the auditing and finance committee.

WILL WORK FOR NEW CITY HALL

Committee of Councilmen Appointed to Act in Conjunction With Mayor Mott.

Chairman Everhardt of the Committee of the Whole of the City Council last night appointed Councilmen Pendleton, Ellsworth, Everhardt, Mullins and Bacaus, as a committee, to act in conjunction with the Mayor in the matter of opening of Washington street also the submitting of plans for a new city hall and hall of justice.

CITY COUNCIL ADOPTS REPORT OF COMMITTEE

Amending Section three of Ordinance No. 1401 entitled "An Ordinance fixing the fees of the City Engineer of the city of Oakland." Establishing grades on Willow street between Sixteenth and Eighteenth streets.

When the report of the Wharves and Waterfront Committee of the Council was read last night, the Council referred the following report back to the committee for further recommendation:

That the Board of Public Works be authorized to repave and repair the city wharf and $498 be appropriated therefor.

That the Board of Public Works be authorized to advertise for bids for construction of a shed on Grove street for replanking the same and placing a tender pile and dredging at said wharf, and appropriating $6000 therefor.

DEFICIT OF CITY STOPS ALL CONSTRUCTIVE WORK

Councilman Hurls Bombshell Into Meeting's Midst When He Makes Known Conditions That Exist.

Councilman Pendleton last night in the council handed his brothers in the legislative body a bombshell when he said every part of constructive work of the city had been stopped because of the deficit the city faced.

This not only meant that all work had been stopped in street work, parks and boulevards, and other branches of the city government, but it meant passing statutory salaries of city officials for at least one month.

While there might be a surplus in certain funds these must be transferred to other funds in order to meet honest obligations incurred by the city. This is a plain statement of conditions made by Mr. Pendleton. According to the statement made by the auditor up to April 1, the following funds have a surplus:

Salary, $4,760 13, fire, $6,504 66, school, $2,126 14, library, $5,455 39, street light, $3,351 46, school building bond interest, $4,140, school building bond redemption, $1,251; bond interest, $600 bond redemption, $1,510, police relief and pension, $14,705, firemen's relief and pension, $4,201 50, wharf, $11,491 55, total, $60,727 34.

Those having deficit are: General fund, $39,443 55, street, $27,504 44, police, $6,076 31, high school, $9,486 58, fire and police telegraph, $3,538 54, sewer, $3,144 35, park, $12,591 15, park and boulevard, $8,077 72, total, $108,865 34.

Surplus available for transfer: Salary, $4,760 13, fire, $6,504 66, street light, $3,351 46, school building bond interest, $4,140, school building bond redemption, $1,251, bond interest, $600, and pension, $6,022, wharf, $11,491 55, total, $40,260 80.

ORPHEUM ASKS FOR NEW SEWER

Adjoining Property-Owners File Protest on Grounds of More Expense.

When the question of a sewer on Twelfth street, along that street to Clay street, that the Orpheum Theater wants to have built, Warren O'Brien representative of the property owners in an effort to prevent its building. He thought the owners should not be taxed for a new sewer when there was one on the street that had been built at the expense of the property owners. The sewer now there is only eight feet below the surface and the Orpheum is putting in a foundation twelve feet deep. The sewer on Clay street will accommodate them, but there must be a sewer built on Twelfth street to reach it.

M. J. Loyman appeared for the Orpheum people and said Clay street was now a business street and not used for residences as it was when the sewer was built. He said the matter was referred to the street committee and will be heard by the Council May 6 when the city attorney will be present to give the Council proper information.

STATES WHARF NEEDS REPAIRS

Councilman Declares Structures Cannot Be Used at the Present Time.

Before the Council adjourned last night Councilman Burns referred to the Grove street wharf, asking that it be repaired, a shed put up and generally put it into condition for operation.

Mr. Pendleton objected, saying that it was inexpedient at this time on account of the condition of funds in the treasury. He said it would take transfer of funds to pay the bills already contracted, and at this time the money could not be used.

The city has a surplus in some funds of $40,000 and bills contracted amounting to $108,000 or facing a deficit of $68,000. The matter was taken out of the committee and a substitute introduced by Burns appropriating $499 for the immediate work was lost on account of lack of funds.

ASK FOR MANY FIRE HYDRANTS

Placing of Plugs Would Mean Expenditure of Around $18,000 Immediately.

Although the fire and water committee of the council reported favorably on fire hydrants, the report was referred by the council Mr. Pendleton said to place those recommended would cost $18,000 a year and this could not be accepted at this time.

It was shown that the districts covered in the report were practically without fire protection, but the council could not see its way clear to incur the expense while the city was facing a deficit. The report reads as follows:

That the Board of Public Works be requested to have hydrants placed at the following locations:

Northeast corner of East 1st street and 24th avenue, corner of 5th and Chestnut streets, Third and Filbert streets, Third and Chestnut streets, Fifth and Kirkham streets, Fifth and Cress streets, Fifth and Center streets, Fifth and Lewis streets, Fifth and Pine streets, corners of Grand avenue and Park View Terrace, Grand avenue, Lee avenue, Perkins street, Saxon avenue, Bellevue avenue and Euclid avenue, corners of Grove and Fifth-fifth streets, Grove and Fifth-fifth streets, Dover and Filbert streets, Dover and Filbert streets, Dover and Filbert streets, east side of Shattuck avenue and 62nd street, east side of Shattuck avenue at Sixth-third street, Shattuck avenue and Fifth-sixth street, Shattuck avenue and Fifth-fourth street, Market and Forty-fifth street, Forty-third and Forty-fifth streets.

A Rally for Greater Oakland.

On May 1 the annual banquet of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce will be given. The occasion should be made a celebration of the recent growth and development of Oakland, hence the members of the Chamber should attend in a body. There should be no absentees.

It is the spirit of her property-owners and business men that makes a city commercially great. Civic pride and patriotism manifests themselves particularly on such occasions as the coming banquet of the Chamber of Commerce. Amid the interchange of views, the performances of the past will be reviewed and suggestions for the future presented. Men do not attend such banquets to eat, but to lend eclat to the occasion by their presence and listen to the symposium of the evening. They sit at the board as a public duty, to show their interest in the city and all movements calculated to promote growth and prosperity.

But there are special reasons why there should be a full attendance at the forthcoming banquet. Oakland has entered upon an unexampled era of growth; her development has amazed her most sanguine inhabitants; progress in every avenue of endeavor is still the dominant note in the community. Every business man in the city should show his sympathy with the onward sweep. Wonders have been accomplished recently, but there are grave problems before us. There is much in the present municipal condition to enlist thoughtful attention and afford a theme for wise discussion. It is time the leading citizens met together and talked things over. The events and changes of the last twelve months have been numerous and portentous, and the demands of the immediate future are pressing for consideration.

The Chamber of Commerce banquet will afford a fitting opportunity for the representatives of the business interests to get together for a heart-to-heart talk. They should make the event imposing by a mere display of numbers, for a large attendance is of itself an evidence of force and popular interest. Give the new Oakland a chance to be heard.

A dash to the south pole will be made in automobiles. We know of several automobilists that we would be glad to have go to the south pole—and stay there.

The Democracy and the President.

On St. Jefferson's Day President Roosevelt was attacked from three sides by Democratic orators. At a muster of the safe and sane Democracy in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, Colonel George Harvey, editor of the North American Review and Harper's Weekly, assailed the President and the Republican party in this bitter fashion—he had previously made a violent personal attack on Mr. Roosevelt in his speech to the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick at Charleston, South Carolina:

"We are told that a President chosen by the people is immune from criticism, and that he is a thing apart, not a mere executive officer, but a tribune enveloped in an odor of sanctity which safeguarded in the days of old. It is a great idea. Criticism of official conduct has been the prerogative of the people. Not so now. The heavy hand of fear rests upon the land. The mighty organization known as the Republican party has become a mere personal machine. Its former leaders have drawn back affrightedly to their corners. Their wishes are no longer regarded, their consultation is no longer desired, obedience to edict is not only extracted from, but enforced upon them."

Senator Rayner of Maryland attacked the President's alleged invasion of States' rights and Bryan's theory of government ownership of railroads.

Before a gathering of his Independence Leaguers Mr. Hearst charged the President with complicity in the abuses and exactions of corporate wealth. He said:

"In 1904 Mr. Perkins contributed $50,000 of the money of widows and orphans to Mr. Cortelyou, campaign collector of the Republican party. In 1905 Mr. Cortelyou as Postmaster-General, paid back to Perkins the party debt with public funds. He awarded Perkins a contract for his steamship line which pays him $500,000 a year more than other lines are paid for a similar service.

"So it seems that Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Harriman are not the only practical men in this practical administration. Mr. Cortelyou and Mr. Perkins appear to be about as practical as men can be and remain at large."

John Temple Graves of Atlanta, Georgia, who asked Bryan at Chattanooga to place Roosevelt in nomination for a third term, was a guest of honor at Mr. Hearst's symposium, and had the pleasure of hearing both the President and the Democratic party roasted to a cracking.

At the University of Virginia Bryan was more academic in his discussion of the politics of the day and more respectful in his allusions to the President. He mildly criticized the President for transgressing the sacred doctrine of States' rights, and fulminated against the evils of centralization.

Leaving out Mr. Hearst's complaint, the Democratic orators merely voiced in different terms the counts in the indictment Senator Foraker framed against the President in his Canton speech. Executive usurpation, centralization and demagogic attacks on vested interests furnished the gravamen of the charges against Roosevelt. The only discordant note came from Mr. Hearst, who boldly charged the President with being in league with his critics and enemies. The alleged unlawful favors he showed George W. Perkins are not very convincing in view of the diatribes poured out on his head by Colonel Harvey, who is the literary mouthpiece of J. Pierpont Morgan, Perkins' banking partner, Thomas F. Ryan and James J. Hill. Are the great railroad magnates mistaken in Mr. Roosevelt, and attacking him for an enemy when he is their friend? That is what we read on the Hearst side of the shield, but it is just the other way if we take the word of Senator Foraker, Colonel Harvey and Dr. Woodrow Wilson for it.

If Secretary Cortelyou did fry the fat out of the multi-millionaires we do not believe he gave them any return for their money. If he did, what are they howling about? Mr. Harriman seems to think he was gold-bricked when he raised that $200,000 for the New York campaign fund. In our opinion, the railroad barons know their friends better than Mr. Hearst does.

The statement that Mr. Delmas has retired from the Thaw case appears to be a trifle inaccurate. The Thaw case seems to have retired from Mr. Delmas.

Clifford Hartridge says dementia Americana will be eliminated from the next trial of Harry Thaw. Likewise Mr. Hartridge

Exaggerated Earthquake Reports.

The reports of heavy loss of life by the earthquake in Southern Mexico are probably very much exaggerated. They are plainly mere guesswork, and in case of sudden calamity guesswork magnifies the actual facts and generally takes on an aspect of credulous terror. The casualties in the seismic convulsion of last year were not a tithe the number first reported. Men imagined people were killed in every direction when they were not. The tendency to relate marvelous experiences and recount hairbreadth escapes caused the damage done by the earthquake to be wildly exaggerated and the loss of life to be enormously over-estimated. More than fifty lives were supposed to have been lost in the collapse of one crazy structure. When the ruins were searched exactly two bodies were found. The same exaggeration probably colors the reports from Southern Mexico. The inhabitants of that region are mainly ignorant, credulous and superstitious mestizos, who are rarely accurate in ordinary matters, and under stress of calamity are prone to give way to the besetting vice of primitive peoples—overstatement, more especially as their reports are given under the influence of terror. The monetary loss cannot be very large, for the two towns devastated are comparatively small and had few substantial buildings. In the country roundabout the dwellings were generally small, rude and of little value. And earthquake does not destroy crops, livestock and food supplies. So the distress cannot be so very acute save among the very poor dependant upon their daily toil for subsistence.

Chief Dinan threatens to discipline Captain Mooney for exposing the rotten condition of the San Francisco police department. Mooney is to be held responsible for the very condition he is trying to remedy. He has offended the heads of the department by stating facts which have been notoriously evident for months. The principal offender is Chief Dinan himself, whose sympathies are with the dive-keepers and whose personal associates belong to the criminal and dissolute class. But Mooney has appealed from the Police Commission and the chief to the grand jury, and he may be found a difficult customer to handle.

Some of our contemporaries seem to think Virginia was the only State to be divided. Maine was created out of a part of Massachusetts, Kentucky was originally a part of Virginia, Tennessee was a part of North Carolina and Alabama and Mississippi were created out of territory belonging to Georgia.

Carrie Nation has taken up her residence in Washington. We trust the sight of her hatchet will remind certain eminent gentlemen of Washington and the famous cherry tree.

Some of the President's alleged friends are energetically trying to prove that he was a liar when he declared he would never run for President again.

"Newton discovered why the apple fell down, did he not?" "He did."

"Well, then, it remains for some equally brilliant mind to discover why it is that plums fall to those higher up."—Harper's Weekly.

The other night, says Harper's Weekly, at a performance of Russian music at Carnegie hall, the house went Russian mad. When the audience was going out one distinguished musical young woman was heard to ask a critic—professional: "What is that Duma that the Russians are composing; is it a chanson or a suite?"

Supposing one of the czar's ministers demands an extra interview and it does not please His Majesty to grant it, Peter Ktsoff, valet and trusted friend of three successive Russian emperors, is sent to announce the fact that "His Majesty is tired." To obtain an audience with the czar is next to an impossibility, but there are exceptions. One gentleman relates how he went to the palace in response to an invitation from the emperor. After he had been conducted from room to room and carefully searched he was allowed to his great surprise to speak to the emperor on the telephone.

That fear will cause the hair to stand on end has been known through the centuries, ever since a spirit passed before the face of Job's comforter, Eliphaz the Temanite, and "the hair of my flesh stood up." At the hanging of a horse stealer in 1925 the man's spiritual attendant noticed that, when his hands were tied, "his hair—long, lanky, weak, iron-gray hair—arose gradually and stood perfectly upright, and so remained for some short time, and then as gradually fell down." Cardinal Pacca saw Pius VII's hair erect from anger; and Ecclesiastical records that "the talk of him that sweareth much maketh the hair stand upright."

Both take up the same space, but the Chickering Quarter Grand has a tone richness and depth that cannot be secured on the upright style of piano.

The Quarter Grand is simply a Chickering Concert Grand condensed. Its tone has less volume and power to better suit the acoustics of a small room. But it has the same superb "tone quality" which has placed the Chickering Concert Grand first among the world's pianos. Wherever an upright can be accommodated the Chickering Quarter Grand will go.

The BEST-ARM Show

ALL OVER COUNTY ENTRIES ARE GROWING

FOR the shapeliest arm in Alameda county the guerdon to be awarded is one dozen pairs of silk stockings, to cost not less than $5 a pair. For the most exquisite pose, comprising arm bared to shoulder, for most graceful attitude before the camera, as shown by the likeness, the prize is a box of the finest quality of gloves. This tourney is limited to maids and matrons who are residents of Alameda county. Mail request for a free Shaw & Shaw photo order to "Phidias, editorial department, OAKLAND TRIBUNE," and let your letter be sent forthwith.

"I took a special trip to Oakland to have myself depicted for your undertaking," writes a Livermore young lady, "and I am entirely satisfied about that journey. I think your idea is a very commendable one—there is a novelty about it that is inspiring, and surely one needs not to be ashamed or afraid to appear before the public in the way you propose, for one's picture printed in a paper is just the same thing as that identical person going about ordinarily among folks. Also, I hope that box of gloves will be captured by Livermore."

Each day this newspaper will present an engraving portraying some competitor in the tourney, and on Sunday a number of views will be displayed. At the close of the contest there is to be a grand grouping of the various pictures that have been received and reproduced. Ask Phidias to forward you a studio order.

WOMAN PURSUER, AND NOT MAN, HE SAYS

MADISON, Wisconsin — "Man the wooer? No. Man is the pursued. He is the victim. Woman, lovely woman, is the pursuer."

So declared Prof. E. A. Ross, head of the sociology department in the University of Wisconsin. Also quoth the professor:

"In all lower families it is the male that is decorated and adorned. The peacock, with the spreading feather, is an example, and so it is with other birds and animals. 'But when it comes to the human family, there is a change. The women are the ones decorated and adorned and they decorate and adorn themselves to please the men. They dress to catch the eye of men because it is upon men they must depend for their living. Women are not productive, but depend upon the men for their subsistence. By dressing and adorning themselves, making themselves beautiful in the eyes of men, they are able to secure a home and livelihood."

"Men are the burden bearers. They must do the hard work. They have no time for decorating themselves. They must be the producers. Women, having the leisure, are enabled to attend to display. And by the display which the women are enabled to make their position in the world is fixed. The woman with the ability to make the most display stands highest."

"The hunter shows his prowess by the number of bears' claws or eagle feathers he is able to display. In the so-called upper world, the same rule prevails. The man who has reached material success proclaims it to the world by a lavish display. But different from the huntsman, his display is made through his wife and other women of his family."

"The woman who has many diamonds and rich clothing, with servants and silver, proclaims to the world the fact of her husband's prowess in the financial game."

The speaker gave women great credit for their fortitude. In using corsets in order to secure waists in keeping with modern standards of beauty and fashion. He sarcastically remarked that the women who permitted their bodies to be squeezed out of shape in order to be up-to-date should be honored.

"In China it was the custom to bind the feet of girls of the wealthy class until they became so deformed that the girls were unable to walk without assistance," said Professor Ross. "This was done in order to proclaim to the world that these girls did not have to work for a living. Girls so deformed were considered greater catches on the matrimonial market than those with normal feet."

"How these girls must have looked back upon the sacrifices and privations endured by their mothers, when at last they were married to some rich man, their every want satisfied!"

"In like manner, with what thankfulness must the girls of our own country who are given a higher education by the toll and sacrifice of their mothers, look back upon these years of suffering when they, like their Chinese equals, are married to rich men. That is why many women who attend college dress finely to attract some rich man, while perhaps their mothers, in squalor and poverty, are drudging to keep them there."

GIRL MARRIES A LABORER WORTH $200,000

KOKOMO, Ind.—"I married him for himself alone and thought that was all there was to it," was the exclamation of Mrs. Lillian Barnett Wilds, who a short time ago was married to J. Earle Wilds, a laborer.

A surprise was sprung on the bride when she was presented with indisputable proof that her supposed penniless husband was worth in his own right more than $200,000. The information did not come from the groom, but from relatives. Young Wilds was born near Findlay, Ohio, and on July 21 next, when he becomes of legal age, he will be sole owner of the estate of his parents who died years ago. His guardian is J. C. Lucas of Seattle, Wash. Three years ago he had a falling out with his guardian over his school allowance and disappeared from college.

He came to Kokomo and took the first work he could find, that of porter in a saloon. Next he got a job on a delivery wagon and from that he went to ditching, he being now a sewer contractor.

SHE DECIDED EARLY TO BECOME A PHYSICIAN

New York—Miss Mary Crawford, who has just been chosen as one of the internes of the Williamsburg Hospital, after a competitive examination in which she was the only woman and was pitted against thirty-five men, is 23, and comes from Nyack.

"There isn't very much that I can say about myself except of course that I am glad I won the place. I hardly expected to," Miss Crawford said. "You see there is usually so much prejudice against women in the professions and men seem so little inclined to give them a show that I went into it as a chance."

"I had been intending all along to make a try somewhere and when I learned that the examination was to be held I sent in my application. I got no answer, so the day set for it I went over to Williamsburg. They had received the application, but didn't notice whether a man or a woman had sent it, though signed Mary Crawford."

"Well, there were two hours of written examination, and after that seven doctors took us in hand and each one questioned for about five minutes. It was an ordeal; and that night I was not a little surprised when they told me that I was to be one of the four internes to start in about the middle of December."

"Shortly before another hospital held an examination and I made application there, but I was a girl, so they wouldn't consider me at all."

The course at the Williamsburg Hospital will be about eighteen months, so that when as Dr. Crawford she is ready to hang out her shingle she will have had nearly six years of medical training. Already she is an A. B., having got the degree at Cornell in the class of 1906.

When she first entered Cornell seven years ago Miss Crawford intended to become a doctor and her studies in the regular course were with the medical department in view. She studied medicine in Ithaca for two years, it being a rule of the university that the women students shall put in half of their time up there before coming to New York for the last two years of the course at the Cornell University medical school here. She will be graduated this spring.

"How did I happen to choose medicine as a profession?" she went on. "Just because I thought that I wanted to be a doctor. My father is a lawyer and so far as we know there have never been any doctors in the family. I wanted to do something in the world."

Miss Crawford is the eldest of eight children. A younger sister was graduated from Cornell last year, two other boys are now in the university, and two of the boys are preparing for Cornell.

Miss Crawford is of medium height and slender. Her light hair is brushed back from a forehead unusually high, and earnest blue eyes look at one frankly.

TELLS OLD SUITOR OVER TELEPHONE HE IS SUED

PITTSBURG, Pa.—That there are many uses to which a telephone can be put, and that two can play at the game, was demonstrated here in the developments of a breach of promise suit filed by Miss Maggie Horwat, a pretty stenographer, against Joseph Poarch, a prominent grocer.

The young woman asks that Poarch be directed to give her $5000 as a financial balm for her wounded feelings, as he has married another.

In her bill of particulars Miss Horwat alleges that Poarch wooed her over the phone, and — he took up much of her time. Finally he proposed and was accepted, and she left her position as stenographer and made ready for her wedding. In the meantime Poarch, she alleges, married another girl and the next day called her up by phone, saying:

"Maggie, I'm married. We are having a party tonight. Come down! I want to introduce you to my wife."

There were some things that Maggie wouldn't stand for, and after she had spent some time in the office of her attorney and had the papers in her suit filed she in turn called Poarch up over the phone and said:

"That you, Joe?"

"Yes," said Mr. Poarch, not recognizing the voice.

"Well, this is Maggie. You are sued. Good day!"

SIXTEEN GIRLS ARE VICTIMS OF A CASCADE IN FINLAND

ST. PETERSBURG.—From Viborg, Finland, comes the tale of a curious suicidal mania, which, at short intervals lately, has driven sixteen victims to self-destruction in the Imatra waterfalls.

The suicides were hysterically inclined young women, who wanted to die in romantic surroundings. Their bodies were washed away by the roaring Vuoksen River and rarely recovered, and then in a shockingly mutilated condition.

The latest victim was a young girl who traveled from Moscow to commit suicide in the waterfall. A coastman seized her clothing as she was going over the edge of the precipice, but the material gave way and she disappeared with a shriek in the torrent.

A JOLLY BRIDAL PARTY TOBOGGANS TO CHURCH

VIENNA, April 16.—Two enthusiastic tobogganists—Herr A. Meyer, and Fraulein Schwarz—celebrated their wedding in an original manner at their native mountain town, Payrbach, near Vienna.

Owing to the unusual length of the winter the streets of the town are deep in snow, and the wedding procession slid down a steep hill from the bride's house to the church on seven toboggans decorated with pine branches and flowers.

The bride led the way with her father, her mother and the other wedding guests followed, and the bridegroom brought up the rear.

Visitors staying in Payrbach, which is a great resort for winter sports, cheered the bride and bridegroom loudly as they left the church.

MAY IRWIN'S CUTE REMARK TO A RASH MALE CUSTOMER

Once for a day May Irwin played the role of saleslady at a hosiery counter in a big New York store that was giving to charity part of its receipts for the day. Other well-known actresses presided over other counters. Just at her busiest moment came to Miss Irwin a young man who insisted on knowing where they were giving the "demonstrations" in chafing dish cooking. He insisted she should answer his inquiry. Then May told him to chase himself.

She was too busy to bother with him. Shortly afterward back came the young man to Miss Irwin's counter with a chafing dish under his arm. "Say," he cried, "what's going on here that you are so busy you can't answer a civil question?"

"Move on, young man, move on," cried May, busier than ever. "This is a special sale of elastic top hose, and I might as well tell you there'll be no demonstrations."

WILL TRANSFER THEIR CONTROL

First Year Class at University to Watch Over Big "C" Hereafter.

BERKELEY, April 16.—For the purpose of effecting the transfer of the big "C" from the second year to the first year men, a meeting of the freshman and sophomore classes of the University will be held jointly tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock, in California Hall on the campus.

MANY SPEECHES.

The ceremony was postponed from Charter day on account of the inclement weather which prevented a representative attendance. At the meeting tomorrow there will be speeches by men who took a prominent part in the founding of the custom. J. M. Burke, '07, who was president of the freshman class when the "C" was built will tell the story of its construction. E. R. Elliott, '06, who was a prominent upperclassman when the "C" was put on the hill will also speak. A deed to the letter will be formally turned over to the president of the freshman class.

ADVERTISING TALK IS MADE

Subject Is Discussed at Regular Commerce Lecture in Berkeley.

BERKELEY, April 16.—Advertising was the subject of the regular commerce lecture delivered yesterday afternoon by Dr. Clarence Edwards of the California Promotion Committee. He said in part, speaking of the committee's work:

"Modern advertising has ceased to confine itself to putting notices in periodicals. It has developed to an art if not a science. Everything which will give publicity is used by the Promotion Committee from magazine articles to trips by the committee, buildings at expositions, and public lectures throughout the Eastern States.

"One great principle which applies not only to advertising a state but also to private businesses is always to stick to the truth and then make good. California can make good for anything that is said about her.

"Another cardinal principle of successful advertising is continual repetition of facts. It is the constant repetition of a statement which makes it believed. The scenery of Yosemite is no grander than that of many other places, but it is the constant advertising it receives that makes it so frequented. If nothing were said about it in public for ten years, it would return to its original wild state."

Dr. Edwards illustrated his lecture with a number of stereoscopic views of scenery of the State.

WINS POSITION OF HONOR BY MARGIN OF SIX VOTES

WOMEN HOLD CLOSE ELECTION

Miss Annie Biddle Chosen President of Associated Students.

BERKELEY, April 16.—By the narrow margin of six votes, Miss Annie Biddle was yesterday elected over Miss Elsie Cole to the presidency of the Associated Women Students of the university. The count showed the vote to be 152 to 146.

Miss Jane Hawk, '08, was the only candidate for the first vice-presidency. The fight for the second vice-presidency was not as close as that for the highest office, there being forty-six votes between Miss Mattie Zander, '08, who received 196 votes, and Miss Helen Rechenburg, '08, who polled 150.

The office of treasurer was also not contested, Miss Florence Goddard, '09, being the only candidate.

Miss Lucille Daniels, '10, was elected secretary over Miss Belle Duckman, '10, by fifty votes, the former receiving 116 to the latter's 146.

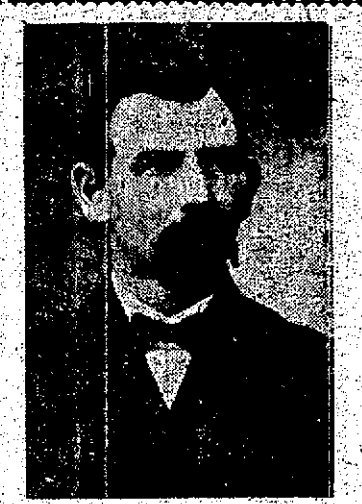

Miss Biddle, the president-elect, made Phi Beta Kappa this last year and is a member of the Pythian Society. She is one of the managing editors of the 1908 Blue and Gold and is a member of the committee for the Women's Dormitory Fund.

Although the office of president was closely contested the feature of the day's voting was the apparent quietness. The busy politicians were almost

NEW TRUSTEES IN BERKELEY

They Re-Elected President Rickard and Go Through With Routine Business.

BERKELEY, April 16.—"Honest" Christian Hoff, known not only to his constituents and fellow citizens in the Seventh Ward, but to all Berkeley for his integrity and square, sportsmanlike qualities, attended his last meeting as a member of the Board of Trustees last night.

As the meeting opened, President Rickard, as a courtesy to "the oldest member of the board," extended the chair and Mr. Hoff was made acting President. As the meeting and the regular business closed, Mr. Hoff stepped down to the forum, where the Trustees were seated, and turned over the duties, which he had so faithfully discharged and conscientiously executed for the last twelve years, to Mr. Schmidt, his successor. The ceremony was simple, but effective.

Turning to the Trustee-elect, the retiring official said: "To you, Mr. Schmidt, I turn over the duties, honors and trust which your fellow taxpayers have invested in you, and which it is your duty as their representative to honor and serve. Cherish and hold them sacred, and when the time comes that you may retire from the duties of a public servant, give them over in turn as you have received them—spotless and for the public welfare." Mr. Schmidt then took the oath of office, followed by the re-elected candidate from the Fifth Ward, E. L. Faror, and the new board was organized.

THEIR RESOLUTIONS.

As the last item of business of the regular session was dispatched, Secretary Mendenhall read the following resolution and a framed duplicate was presented to Christian Hoff as a token of esteem from the citizens of the Seventh Ward.

The undersigned committee representing the citizens of the Seventh Ward do hereby adopt the following resolution:

Whereas, Mr. Christian Hoff is about to retire as a member of the Board of Trustees of the town of Berkeley, and

MUSIC LOVERS TO HAVE TREAT

Composition Written by Giulio Minetti Will Be Heard in Berkeley.

BERKELEY, April 16.—Within a few weeks music lovers will hear for the first time a composition written by Giulio Minetti, concert master of the symphony orchestra. The Italian virtuoso has named his new piece "La Caprice." The gay life of San Francisco, the happy, carefree nature of his own personality is drawn forth by the master in wonderfully clear notes.

The music to "La Caprice" was written by Minetti while he traveled back and forth from his home in San Rafael to his San Francisco studio on the ferryboat. "La Caprice" is now in the hands of the publishers.

This is not the first composition Minetti has written, though it is the first that he has offered to the public since he has been in this country. He has composed during his fifteen years stay on this coast at least thirty short pieces.

In Italy one of Giulio Minetti's earliest pieces, composed while he was still in his teens, came to be heard. In fact, the piece is familiar in France, Germany and Spain.

Mr. Minetti has been offered large sums by publishers to have his compositions published. He would prefer to allow his compositions to be played by his favorite pupils and as by himself for the amusement of his friends.

Many of his new compositions were destroyed in the disaster of April, 1906, and these can never be replaced.

BIGGY IS ACTIVE

ELISOR HAS A LIVELY TIME HUNTING UP RUEF JURORS.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—Though the residence formerly occupied by Mayor Schmitt and now used as a residence by Ruf and Biggy is a house divided against itself, it manages to stand the strain on conflicting minds. Today the elisor was strenuously occupied in business calculated to put his prisoner in the penitentiary, while the same prisoner was just as busily engaged in a methodical effort to keep the key between himself and Alameda county.

Almost before the morning lark had piped the first notes of dawn Biggy had sprung retracted from his couch and dragged sleepy John Shine from his repose. After perusing the menu to which Ruf objects at all times except mealtime, he and the ex-federal marshal climbed into the puffing automobile to begin a hunt for the elusive talsman.

The road was fairly good, making the tires hum in the effort to notify every man on the list of fifty which was drawn yesterday for service on the jury. By tomorrow Biggy will be responsible for the return of the venire and the engagement will keep him hustling probably into the night.

Ruf meanwhile became a scurrier for the nonce. Through the long preliminaries to his trial and during the trial itself he has taken extensive notes of the proceedings. Today he is engaged in making a duplicate of these in somewhat less rough form for ready reference, and his smooth pen has been running swiftly across the legal foot-cop all this morning.

SEARCHES FOR MISSING WIFE

Band Plays While Oakland and Portland Teams Cross Bats.

"Where is Ethel Adams Carlyle, now Ethel Adams Carlyle Meyers?" is the question that is asked by John C. Carlyle, of 34 Warren street, Boston, Mass., whose wife joined a circus troupe and row has married the man with whom she eloped, and wedded in Oakland on January 8, 1907.

Carlyle writes from Concord, N. H., to County Clerk Cook, asking a little information of his wife, whom he claims left him and their two babies, one two years and the other four years old. He said he was informed that the wife had been in Alameda county this city. The records show that on January 5, 1907, Thomas J. Meyers and Ethel Carlyle were granted a marriage license and on the same day married.

No record of a divorce can be found in the minutes of the Alameda County Superior Courts. It might have been that she was granted a divorce in some other State, where the plaintiff does not live, but he is a resident of the same prior to the time of filing a divorce complaint.

Carlyle says his wife joined the Norris & Rowe circus at Santa Cruz in March, 1906. Before that time she had never been in California. She fell in love with "Tom" Meyers, as the latter says, and was discharged on account of leaving the circus ring for a week and going with Meyers. After leaving the circus she again joined her Boston spouse, having been away for about six months. Carlyle says his wife went West again and took up the company of Meyers. She wrote to him frequently, says the husband. About two or three weeks ago she discontinued her correspondence and at about the same time, Carlyle heard she was married.

He says she had his address and that a divorce had been granted to her in some State, she should have had papers sent to him. By the laws of certain States, she could have obtained a divorce without the year's wait and as Carlyle was out of the State, the summons and papers could be published in the city or county in which she was divorced. But this method the husband could not know whether or not he was married.

"Now as I am a poor man and she had deserted our two babies, one two and one four years of age," reads the letter of the husband, "whom I thought I can for, I ask you to give me the information. By so doing I can protect the names of my babies."

KILLING JUSTIFIED

"UNWRITTEN LAW" IS INVOKED IN SAN FRANCISCO MURDER CASE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—The "unwritten law" was invoked this morning to free William Miller of the charge of murdering John P. Cosgrove. The tragedy occurred a year ago after a quarrel in which Miller berated Cosgrove for enticing his wife away. In the police court this morning Judge Conlan, after hearing the evidence, held that Miller was justified in killing Cosgrove and set him at liberty.

JANITORS SEEK HIGHER WAGES

School Board Faces Problem—Allan Lake Must Paint Pole.

Claiming that they have to pay from $10 to $20 monthly for help, and setting forth the same reasons as did the teachers upon their application for a higher salary, the janitors of the different Oakland schools petitioned the Board of Education at their meeting last night for a monthly increase of 25 per cent. Owing to the large amount of work which they have to attend to, it is necessary for them to hire outside help in order to do the work allotted them. The petition, which was signed by all the janitors of the various schools, was referred to the Finance Committee.

Professor O. H. Ennis, a Sacramento teacher, is a communication to the board of education, in which he states that the parents or guardians of any patient he may attend need feel under no obligation to him whatever in case the child is cured. If the parents wish to remunerate him they may do so, but he would not be compulsory. The matter was referred to Superintendent McClymonds with power to act.

BID FOR WORK. Merrill & Company submitted a bid for the rebuilding of the roof of the Franklin school. The firm of Robert D. Merrill & Company bid for the copper and galvanized roofing on the same school, offering to do the work for $3000. Merrill & Company want $192.50 for their part of the work and added sum of $300, making a total of $272.50 for the entire job.

The board approved the action of the firm of Long & Hoyt in turning over certain work they had contracted for, to the John Roebeling Construction Company.

THAT POLE AGAIN. Regarding the case of Allen Lake, the 13-year-old Cole school student, who sometime ago slightly defaced a forty-foot pole near the Cole school, it was agreed by the Committee on Rules and Regulations that Principal Greenwell exacted nothing, but what was reasonable from the boy.

A full investigation was made into the case by Rules and Regulations Committee and they find that the boy was asked to paint over other defects which he had not made, but only a few minutes were required for the work to be done. The committee upheld the principal's decision. The boy can return to school as soon as he does what is required of him by Principal Greenwell.

It was recommended by Directors Hunsford, Grove and Randall that the present fire insurance policies be cancelled by the board. They also recommended that the Finance Committee report in regard to insurance policies at the meeting to be held on the evening of April 22.

CARMEN TO MEET

IMPORTANT SESSION TO DETERMINE COURSE TO PURSUE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—The Carmen's Union will hold a meeting tonight, at which it will probably be determined whether higher wages and shorter hours will be demanded in the new agreement which will be entered into with the United Railroads at the beginning of next month. It is generally believed that in presenting the new agreement the carmen will ask for a universal eight-hour day, and for an increase in the wage scale above that allowed by the arbitration board at its recent session. A strike, if these demands are not acceded to, is not improbable.

Richard Cornelius, president and business agent of the carmen, refused this morning to discuss in any way the probable action of the carmen at tonight's meeting. Neither would he say what terms the carmen will ask of the company in making the new agreement, nor if another strike of the conductors and motormen is contemplated. President Calhoun of the United Railroads is said to have informed the Eastern directors of the company that at the expiration of the present agreement the men would be left without an agreement, and no more agreements with them would be made. This action, if adhered to would bring to a crisis the relations between the company and its employees and precipitate another strike. There are many among the carmen who are ready to believe that the company would like to avoid entering into an agreement if it could do so, but there is no information here as to whether or not President Calhoun intends to make the experiment at this time.

Decision of the board of arbitration which ended the latest difference between the company and its employees was not satisfactory to the carmen either in respect to the wage allowance or hours of employment, and among the rank and file there is a very strong sentiment in favor of taking the matter up with the presentation of the new agreement and adjusting the points of controversy in a manner satisfactory to the carmen. Tonight's meeting of the union will determine just what will be done in this regard.

ACCUSE DRIVER OF DIAMOND THEFT

Thomas Connelly was arrested this morning at Twelfth street and Alameda by detectives Hodgkins and Green and charged with grand larceny. Connelly is a delivery man for a downtown grocery and while delivering goods to the residence of Mrs. Joseph Enzerberger of Berkeley, it is said, saw a diamond ring on a wash stand. He is alleged to have lifted it. The ring was discovered shortly afterwards and the police notified. The ring had five diamonds in it and is valued at $250.

PASS RESOLUTIONS OUT OF RESPECT TO DEAD

The following resolutions have been passed by the members of the First Spiritual church of this city, out of respect to the late Mrs. Anna Franks, who passed away March 26th:

"Resolved, That we, members of the First Spiritual church of Oakland, of which Mrs. Franks was a member, offer our sympathies to the bereaved husband, and we, knowing that she still lives and will hover around and comfort him in his loneliness, hope that he may be brought to realize her presence near and so add comfort to his declining years."

POLICE SWEEP ON GAMBLERS

Several Raids Made in San Francisco by Order of Captain Mooney.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—Action under the instructions of Captain of Police Mooney, there were two raids on poolrooms in the new Tenderloin yesterday. Early in the afternoon Patrolmen Cottle and McOrana raided 1559 O'Farrell street, which is conducted by a man known as Parkman, and arrested him and four persons who were inside for violation of the ordinance prohibiting poolrooms and betting gambling places. The big raid of the day came at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when Sergeant Eastman and Patrolmen Whistler, Charleston and Conlan swooped down on 1108 Golden Gate avenue and arrested the keeper of the place, George Smith, and seventy-two patrons of the game, who were inside making bets on the Oakland races.

The place has long been known to the police as one where bets could be recorded and has received what the sports of the Tenderloin call "a good play." Without any notice to the officers, of what was wanted of them Sergeant Eastman ordered the three men who as-

FALLS VICTIM TO BUNGO MEN

Sidney Huson, an electrician from Los Angeles, stopping at the Arlington hotel, en route to British Columbia, was the victim of a bunco game this morning in one of the city parks. He lost $30 in cash and a draft on New York for $208.47.

It appears that the man was strolling through one of the parks, which, on his way to say on account of not knowing the city, and there he met a stranger. They entered into a conversation, and later on there was a green looking country fellow came up and the man who was talking with Huson and the country fellow entered into a game of pitch and toes. The country fellow lost all his money and started away to get more to continue the game.

While he was gone the stranger and Huson started a game, and then a man representing a detective came up and placed the stranger under arrest. He also told Huson that he would have to

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—A warrant has been sworn out for the arrest of David Clienhall, a clerk of the San Francisco and Red Cross Relief Fund Association, on a charge of felony embezzlement to the sum of $754.50.

It is alleged that Clienhall has been stealing the collections of the relief corporation in little bills for the last month. He has been carrying on a system of petty embezzlement since his employment by the Relief and Red Cross Fund Association.

The warrant was sworn to by Dr. G. R. Broderick, an official of the association this afternoon.

The money may count up in the thousands but thus far the officials have only succeeded in landing the prisoner for a sum less than $1000.

PEACE ADVOCATES GATHER IN NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Many Addresses Arranged and Session Is to Be Long and Interesting One Throughout.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The advocates for peace, who have come here from all sections of the United States and from many foreign countries, to participate in the national peace conference today, found a hard and long program before them. Five different meetings, which promised to fill in practically every hour of the early forenoon until near midday, had been arranged for today. The first of these was the meeting at Carnegie hall, where the topic was "The Relation of Women to the Peace Movement."

Among the speakers at this meeting were Mrs. Mary B. Woolley, president of Mount Holyoke College for women, who spoke upon the "Educational Aspects of the Peace Propaganda," Mrs. Ellen M. Hennrich, president of the National Council of Women, and Mrs. Frederick Natham, president of the National Consumers League, and Miss Jane Addams of Chicago. A letter from Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, who was unable to attend the meeting, was read.

SOME ASPECTS.

In the afternoon there will be two meetings, one at the Hotel Astor, when commercial aspects of the peace movement will be discussed, and a young people's meeting at Carnegie hall. Strauss will be the speaker at the Hotel Astor meeting and addresses will be delivered by Baron d'Estournelles de Constant, head of the international conciliation committee; former Governor Batchelder, of New Hampshire; James Van Hook, president of the National Association of Manufacturers; and others.

William C. Stead, the London editor, and Henry Bailey Turner of the Massachusetts Board of Education will be among the speakers at the young people's meeting.

ORGANIZED LABOR.

The two sessions this evening will be the university meeting at Carnegie hall and a meeting at Cooper Union to discuss the question of organized labor. Among the speakers at the university meeting will be Dr. John Rhy, head of Jesus College and vice-chancellor of the University of Oxford, England, who will take for his subject "The Relation of the University to International Good Will." Charles Elliot, president of the Harvard University, and Edwin D. Mead, director of Old South historical work, Boston. Among the speakers at the labor meeting will be leaders of several national and international unions, including James O'Connell, International Association of Machinists; Dennis S. Hayes, president of the Glass Blowers Association of the United States and Canada; and Daniel J. O'Keefe, president of the International Longshoremen's Marine and Transport Workers' Association of Detroit; Alexander Group, member of the national Democratic committee from Connecticut; W. E. Martin, national Democratic committeeman from Massachusetts; George Fred Williams and Joseph Quincy of Boston; John Brisbane Walker of New York and John W. Tomlinson of Alabama.

GENERAL.

Mr. Belmont, after pointing out that the publicity law of the State of New York was brought about by the combined efforts of organized labor and republicans and that this law had proved beneficial, urged united effort to secure a national law. The bill before the last Congress, which was introduced by the Democratic committee, had been energetically supported by the minority members of the committee having the measure in charge, but they were unable to secure its passage. Mr. Belmont's opinion of the bill failed because it could not be supported. Mr. Belmont made an appeal for a practical law that would be in operation in the national elections of next year.

CORINNE BARRY APPEARS IN NEW ROLE AT NAPA

MISS CORINNE BARRY.

Berkeley Girl Is Accused of Assisting Her Mother to Escape From the Asylum.

NAPA, April 16.—That Corinne Barry, actress and artist of Berkeley, assisted in the abduction of her mother, Mrs. A. Hent, from the Napa State Hospital is the belief of the asylum officers and others investigating the disappearance of the lady. It became known today that when attendants went to the cottage east of the asylum where first-class pay patients are kept they found the doors and windows locked and had no intimation of Mrs. Hent's disappearance until informed of the fact by another patient. This patient said she had seen three women quietly steal away with Mrs. Hent late Tuesday night. The authorities followed up this information and learned that an automobile had been stationed on the road about a quarter of a mile from the asylum and that there was every reason for believing that it had been employed by the abductors of Mrs. Hent.

Corinne Barry was in Napa Friday evening and although pretending to be searching anxiously for her mother she gave such unsatisfactory answers to questions put to her by Superintendent Stone and Sheriff Dunlap that they are convinced that she assisted her mother to escape from the asylum.

BERKELEY, April 16.—From information received from Napa tonight the police here believe that Mrs. Hent has been taken to a place of hiding at Benicia.

When seen at her apartments at the Bon Air Miss Barry was persistent in her denials that she had assisted her mother to leave the asylum.

Miss Barry's mother was committed to the hospital after an examination in which Dr. J. Stitt of Berkeley testified that she had been demented for several years. Miss Barry, after her unhappy experience with Lewis Bulkeley, a university student, was given a home at the Stitt residence, where she remained for several months. Mrs. Hent objected to this action of her daughter at the time and it was declared violently attacked her and Dr. Stitt. The police here point to this fact and profess to be surprised at the stories from Napa linking the girl's name with the disappearance of her mother from the asylum.

BIG MUSEUM BURNED

Priceless Collection in McGill University Destroyed.

MONTREAL, April 16.—A second disastrous fire within two weeks visited McGill University today and practically destroyed the medical building, one of the oldest and most valuable of the college group. Besides the equipment, the museum, one of the best upon the continent, containing many priceless specimens, was destroyed. The magnificent medical library, however, was saved.

Immediately after the recent fire which wiped out the engineer building, the university authorities, it is understood, placed a half million dollars of extra insurance on the whole university plant. The medical building will share in this, but it is doubtful whether the insurance will cover one-half of the actual damage.

The buildings were erected at a cost of about $250,000. The collections which they contained were beyond estimate as to value.

Dr. J. H. Shepherd stated that his famous anatomical collection was saved.

BOSTON'S BIG FIRE.

BOSTON, April 16.—Millions of dollars worth of property was endangered today by a fire that broke out in Central wharf warehouse, but owing to the fact that the wind was blowing in the direction of the harbor, the firemen were able to confine the flames and prevent their spreading towards the city.

The fire was started in the oil refining plant of Howe, French & Co., and was caused by the explosion of an oil tank. The explosion burst open the doors and windows of the building and sheets of flames, fed by burning oil, shot across the wharf, scorching the sheds of the Boston and Philadelphia Steamship Company on the opposite side. Several drays, laden with wool, cotton and general merchandise, were set on fire by the sudden outbreak of the blaze and more than a dozen houses attached to the wharf were burned so badly that they had to be shot. Several drivers and warehouse employees were slightly burned.

Three firms were burned out—the Commonwealth Oil Company, the Boston-Schuyler Company, oil refiners, and the Howe-French Company. The property loss is estimated at $100,000.

ALAMEDA'S MAYOR SAYS THAT IT IS A FOOL LAW

This Idea of Giving an Account of Campaign Expenses Does Not Appeal to Taylor.

"I was in receipt of a great deal of abuse which I did not deserve, and was offered by many of my friends considerable money for the purpose of conducting my campaign expense, but no person, firm or corporation contributed any money whatever towards my campaign expenses," says the itemized statement of E. K. Taylor, recently elected the first mayor of Alameda.

It further goes on to state that he received the aid of "many of the most loyal men who ever walked on the earth." Mayor Taylor states that the twenty automobiles used for the purpose of parade and assisting voters to the polls, were contributed free of charge and had they not been given gratis their expense would have amounted to $2000. He states that his campaign committee did not receive any money from anybody.

FOOL ACT.

Under the provisions of the State law, candidates have to file with the county clerk the itemized statement of their campaign costs after they are elected. Taylor in his statement has the following to say relative to this law:

"I very carefully paid all the bills for these things prior to the filing of my certificate of nomination, (referring to the preliminary entertainments, brass bands and expenditures before receiving the nomination) and such expenses are not part of my campaign under the provisions of a fool act of the legislature commonly known as the 'Purity of Election Act,' but which should be entitled an 'Act to Promote Perjury.'"

By laying away supplies and paying bills before the election, Taylor says he easily kept within the $100 expense limit. The itemized account shows various expenditures for printing and election advertisements.

VALUABLE ASSISTANCE.

"I received valuable assistance from THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, Alameda Argus, Oakland Herald, Once A Week, Saturday Night, News Letter, Wasp, San Francisco Call, Livermore Herald, Max Hornwald's programs, and many other newspapers which by way of compliment to New Alameda published many articles favorable to my campaign without any charge whatever, and for which I publicly return my thanks," concludes his statement.

IMAGINE THEY ARE OSTRICHES

Faithful Hens Attempt to Outdo Monster Birds of Cawston Ranch.

Two eggs laid by Barred Plymouth Rock hens owned by Mrs. Henry C. Farley are exhibited at the Chamber of Commerce. One measures 8 1/2 inches in circumference and contained three yolks, weighed a quarter of a pound and was laid April 6th. The other measures nine inches and weighs one and a quarter of a pound. The hens that lay such eggs were raised by Mrs. Farley at her home, 303 Ruby street.

The quarterly meeting of members of the Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow morning at the rooms at 212 and 214 Franklin street. This is also the usual evening the rooms are open during the evening, hence members are invited to bring the lady members of their families, that they may view the exhibit while the members are sitting a few minutes to the business of the chamber.

BOYS' SCHOOL BURNED DOWN

Fire Results in Heavy Loss in Oklahoma but All Inmates Escape.

ARKANSAS CITY, Ark., April 16.—The Osage boarding school for boys, situated across the line from here in Oklahoma, was destroyed by fire today. Loss, $75,000. As far as known all inmates escaped.

THREE-CENT FARE IS A FAILURE IN CITY OF CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 16.—The Cleveland Electric Railway Company reported to the City Council last night that the operation of cars at three-cent fare in accord with the city administration's policy is a losing venture. These lines have been operated at the low rate following the expiration of the company's franchise according to the ruling of the District Court and Supreme Court of the United States. The report declares the cost of carrying passengers on the line indicated was in excess of three cents and that the expense would not warrant a continuance of the fare.

ADD TO GIRLS' BIG HOME FUND

Judge Henshaw and Brother Donate $1000 for Club Project.

The fund for the purchase of the Playter home for a club for business women has been increased by a gift of $1000 by the three Henshaw brothers, Judge Henshaw and William and Tyler Henshaw, well-known capitalists. The gift was in memory of their mother, Sarah Henshaw, one of the first presidents of the local Young Woman's Christian Association. This brings the fund for the purchase of the club-house to $17,000. On Thursday afternoon, the children's donation will be received. It is not known just what this sum will be, but it is likely to add several hundred dollars to the amount.

On Friday evening, the children of several of the churches of East Oakland united to give a concert. Mayor Mori gave a handsome bound edition of Shakespeare's works to the girl who succeeded in disposing of the greatest number of tickets. Other prizes will be distributed Thursday when the money is turned in to the treasurer of the Playter fund.

ARE PLEASED.

"We are very much pleased with the progress we are making towards the purchase of the club-house," declared Mrs. J. B. Richardson, local president of the Young Woman's Christian Association this morning.

"We began this project less than three months ago and already we have the sum of $17,000 cash on hand, thus assuring us of the success of our plans. We were not to purchase the property until we had $25,000 subscribed, and we hope to have this entire sum realized within a few weeks. The business men have been most liberal, and we have been encouraged from every source."

"Our idea is to provide a social hall for business women where they may meet on the same footing as men do at their clubs. It is not to be a boarding-house in any sense of the word, although we intend to serve noon luncheons for working women and other women who care to become members of the club."

"The club-house is to be equipped with rest rooms, recreation halls, and classes where the ambitious young woman may pursue such studies as will enable her to better her position. We intend to employ the best teachers obtainable. Classes will be conducted in all the academic and business college branches. The institution is to be managed by the local board of the Young Woman's Christian Association; in fact, the club-house is to be an auxiliary of this organization."

The first national asylum for the insane was opened by William Tuke, a Friend in 1793 in York, England. A Frenchman had made a similar effort to establish one in this country a few years before, but his project was abandoned. It is now in universal use, but at the time entirely new, was ridiculed as preposterous.

LADIES' NIGHT WAS SUCCESS

Fraternal Order of Eagles Entertain Large Number of Reception.

"Ladies' night" was the occasion of a successful affair given last night by the local body of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, in aid of the Y. W. C. A. and Franklin street hall was filled with the Eagles' guests and dancing and refreshments were enjoyed. One of the notable features of the order will be the program, the cover of which was the picture of an eagle bearing a lady, in the picture of whose hat was a representation of a diamond.

The committee of arrangements in charge of the "Ladies' Night" was as follows: A. M. Thompson, chairman; D. W. Denny, secretary; George Volmer, D. W. Denny, E. J. Snider, Charles Ohma, Frank Heaney, William Curry.

The grand convention of this lodge will meet at Bakersfield on May 23, when Dr. H. E. Mohrman of this city, the grand state president of the order will preside. Following are the delegates from Oakland: E. G. Buswell Jr., D. W. Denny, Eugene J. Snider, Frank Galmarino, Charles Denny, Dr. G. G. Reinle, Frank N. Heaney, Ed Hansen, Joseph Herbert and Charles Ohma.

In addition to the delegates Oakland Aerle will be represented by the grand state president, Dr. Smithmann; East President Mortimer; Jack Heaney and Harry Pulver, giving the local aerle a representation of sixteen delegates.

The Oakland delegation will leave for Bakersfield in a special car via the Santa Fe on the morning of May 27 and will be joined by the delegates from Alameda Aerle and other delegates from this county.

Yerkes, resigned. It is believed he will accept the appointment.

FROM NORTH DAKOTA NEWSPAPER

"It is reported that one of the fastidious newly married ladies of this town kneads bread with her gloves on. This incident may be somewhat peculiar—but there are others!"

"The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on; he needs bread with his shirt on; he needs bread with his pants on; and unless some of the delinquent subscribers to this 'Old Rag of Freedom' pony up before long he will need bread without a damn thing on, and North Dakota is no Garden of Eden in the winter time."

Ever Since.

of Chinpancingo, Tixtla and Chilapa, in the State of Guerrero, Mexico, were completely destroyed by an earthquake shock. The news is that fully five hundred persons were killed in the three places. The authorities, however, refuse to credit this number of fatalities in the absence of undisputed corroboration.

Shocks have continued at intervals and are still recurring, causing the earth to upheave and undulate like the waves of the ocean.

Houses toppled down like blocks in the cities. The authorities, however, are of the opinion that the three cities, with combined population of nearly twenty thousand persons, are completely destroyed, owing to the belief that many of the houses, which are massively constructed, withstood the earthquake shocks.

Three of the wrecked towns are in the State of Guerrero, Chinpancingo, being the capital of the State. Both Chinpancingo and Tixtla are on the Acapulco road, about 120 miles southwest of Mexico City.

Among the dead are Federal Postal Inspector Lopez Guerrero and a child of his daughter.

Communications with points outside the destroyed cities was re-established today by the placing of telegraphic offices in the fields. Messages, however, have been frequently interrupted by trembling, which were felt at intervals today.

QUAKE LASTED FOUR MINUTES

The official record of the meteorological bureau on last night's disaster gave the duration of the shock at four minutes. The movement was from east to west, and the first of the shocks first described ten centimetres and last

THE CHARITY MEET.

The three charities promenade concert at the Fairmont this evening will draw together the most aristocratic elements of local and suburban society. Mrs. M. H. de Young is head of the coterie of ladies and gentlemen who are managing the affair. Not the least notable feature of the display will be the showing of gifts for the institutions concerned, bestowed by merchants and other donors. Stewart will direct a musical program and there are to be various methods of diversion for the assemblage.

On the premises will be a theater, having a balcony and two promenade floors, with a capacity for about 1500 people.

THE SALMON TRADE.

About 4000 men are employed in the salmon-fishing industry at Alaska, and this city supplies all but some ten per cent of that army. There are some thirty-six vessels engaged in the pursuit, and the Alaska packers control twenty-five of them. Last year's pack was small, but a big harvest is expected for 1907. The packers and Behring sea fishermen have composed their differences as to rate of compensation and the new cost of product will be an advance of ten per cent. Yesterday the bark Kony sailed for the North, being the first one to leave this season.

MAY-BE A STRIKE

Metal workers here want an 8-hour workday as against a 9-hour day prevailing in the east.
